Posted by Merrill Middleton Stuart on June 10, 1999 at 23:21:42:

The Middletons have been in Burlington, NJ since at the 1600's. The first two I can find in my records are Thomas Middleton d. 1704 and his son John b. 1686 d. 1741/42. Does anyone know anything more about Thomas and other children he might have had and any information about the family before they came to america. I can trace my line all the way back to Thomas and now want to go further.

I am descended from Wm. and Mary Kemble. William had his only child with Mary Kemble, another William (1747-1819). He married Betsy Butler in 1767 and had 2 children, John (1779-1839) who I am descended from and another William (1780-1850). William seems to be a very popular name in my ancestry. From what I can see, there is only one generation (my g. grandfather's) that does not have a William in it. My grandfather is a William and I have an uncle and cousin who are Williams.

--my great-grandfather Melbourne believed that we came from Chirk castle in northern Wales. The evidence? The family records there list a John Middleton born around 1650 who then vanishes--no death date, etc. A researcher in Wales told me in 1996 that this "disappearance" often meant emigration, particularly for Quakers. The other evidence? My grandfather remembered someone in the family having a copy of the family crest from the 16th century and it had a wolf in it. The Chirk Middletons are the only one with such a crest. There were Williams and Thomas in that Chirk family; some of you have noted that those names are common in ours too. The Chirk Middleton's got the castle as a gift from Queen Elizabeth after Sir Thomas (1550-1631) helped Sir Walter Raleigh defeat the Spanish Armada. The family gave the castle to the National Trust in the 1980's. No one on are side who ever tries to visit it gets in. Have any of you?

In Reply to: Re: Middleton Family of Burlington, NJ by Glorene Simpson-Stevens of 3184

I have conflicting information to yours regarding the Wm. Middleton family. I believe that my info came from a family Bible:

Wm Middleton, b Mar 25, 1773, d. Sep 25, 1841, age 68 yrs. m. Catherine McArthur, b. Jun 8, 1785, d. Oct 7, 1871, age 86 yrs. Children of above:

George Middleton, b. 1805 (father of Harriet & Mable)

Margery Middleton, b, Feb. 1807

John Middleton, b. Jan 1811 (father of Martha McKay)

Euphemia Middleton, b. Jun 1809, d. May 1811

Joseph Middleton, b. Nov. 1813, d. April 1891

Wm. Henry Middleton, b. Mar 9, 1816, d. Jun 1841

Montgomery Middleton, b. May 29, 1817

James Middleton, b. Aug 1819, d. 1901 (grandfather of Alexa Guild)

(Jane Elizabeth Campbell) think this may be wife of James, not sure - b. Jun 1821, d. 1889

Catherine Margaret Middleton (my gg-grandmother), b. Feb 20, 1821, m. Samuel Gormly Feb 1846, d. Aug 10, 1852.

Would like to hear from you.

Generation No. 2

2. GEORGE W.² MIDDLETON (*WILLIAM*¹) was born January 7, 1805 in Johnstown, NY, and died 1866 in Oak Grove Cem Hillsdale, MI. He married (1) MARGARET MACARTHUR October 1833. She was born 1814, and died Abt. 1839. He married (2) ELIZABETH DUNNING June 23, 1841 in Clarence, Erie County, N.Y.. She was born 1811, and died 1886 in Oak Grove Cem Hillsdale, MI.

Notes for GEORGE W. MIDDLETON:

Dear Glorene,

Isn't this intriguing?

No, my uncle said we were not related to the SC Middletons, either those of Middleton Place or the signer of the Declaration of Independence. We were all hoping that we were but I don't know about those Southerners who went to New Jersey!

I don't have anything at all of William who married Catherine McArthur. I have wanted to find his brothers if he had any. It's a fond hope of mine to connect our Middletons to a William F. who had a very minor role in Arizona's history. BTW, I live in Tucson with my husband. Born in NY, lived in VT, TX, and CA.

As for George W., I have scads of info. I do not have it in proper form but I'm glad to send it on to you. Just tell me when to stop. You have a wonderfully extensive Tree on the 'Net, don't you? I haven't seen it all yet but I will.

William and Catherine's son, George W. Middleton, b. 1805, d. 1866, was married twice. First was to Margaret MacArthur, age 19, his cousin (no surprise) in Oct. 1833. They had two sons, John Montgomery and William. (Nothing more on these two or Margaret.)

George W.'s second wife was Elizabeth Dunning (1811-1886). At some point, they moved from Clarence, NY to Jonesville, MI. They are buried in Oak Grove Cemetery in Hillsdale, MI

Their children are:

John - married Harriet Ann Kennedy

George Henry (1846-1904)- married Margaret Jane Kennedy (b. 1/14/1845-5/24/1914) (yes, Harriet Ann's sister)

Margaret - married Ellis Clisbe

Middleton Family

Jennie (Jane) unmarried (1850-1875)

James - married Florence Smith

I doubt if you want any more but let me know. I have John and Harriet Ann's descendants and George Henry's which is my branch. One of his sons was my father.

I guess you trace back to John (1811-1872), George W.'s brother so I'd imagine your great, great grandfather and my great grandfather were brothers. I'm assuming I'm only one generation older (I'm 79). I have one brother who has a daughter, I have two girls (in CA) and all my cousins are girls so there won't be any more Middletons from this branch.

About now, my brain is tired! Some time, tell me where you've been around the country connected to genealogy and the family. We went to Middleton Place about 17 years ago. Once in upstate NY, we visited Frederic Remington's house in Ogdensburg which was furnished as in the early 1900's. There was a quilt on a bed with signatures and among them were my parents' names before they were married. Now I know they had cousins in Lisbon.

Enough!

Marge Sherman

Dear Mrs. Stevens

As I was crawling around through the WorldConnect Project files recently, I came across your listing for George W. Middleton as a part of your Stevens/Simpson Genealogy. I was particularly interested since George W. Middleton was my great great grand father (gggf) and William Middleton my gggf. My line goes as follows:

William Middleton	ggggf
George W. Middleton	gggf
George Henry Middleton	great grand father
Ellis Gormley Middleton	grandfather
Helen Elizabeth Middleton	mother
David C. Burnett

I noticed that your file only included 7 of the children of William Middleton and Catherine MacArthur. There were, in fact, 10 children as follows:

George W. Middleton	b. 7 Jan 1805	d. 1866
Margery Middleton	b. 17 Feb 1807	d. 14 Sept 1860	Age 53 Yr.
Euphemia Middleton	b. 27 June 1809	d. 15 May 1811	Age 1 Yr. 10 Mos.
John Middleton	b. 31 Jan 1811	d. 14 Sept 1872	Age 61 Yr.
Joseph Middleton	b. 4 Nov 1813
William Henry Middleton	b. 9 March 1816	d. 25 June 1841	Age 26 Yr.
Montgomery Middleton	b. 29 May 1817	d. 8 Oct. 1819	Age 2 Yr. 4 Mos.
James Middleton	b. 15 Aug 1819	d. 29 April 1901	Age 82 Yr.
Jane Elizabeth Middleton	b. 25 June 1820	d. 25 Jan 1888	Age 68 Yr.
Catherine Margaret Middleton	b. 20 Feb 1826	d. 10 Aug 1852

This information was taken from a Middleton Bible (probably William's) in the possession of my great aunt Margaret Middleton of Webster, New York.

Middleton Family

I have some additional information on the other children of William and Catherine which I will gladly share if you are interested. I also have the original of numerous documents such as letters and deeds from William and his children. As I learn how to scan these and get a good image, I can also pass these along. One, a letter from George W. Middleton to Elizabeth Dunning asking for her hand in marriage, is both interesting and amusing.

If you have other information on Catherine MacArthur (Did you know William & Catherine were cousins?) or Elizabeth Dunning I would certainly be interested.

Looking forward to hearing from you whenever you have a chance.

Notes for WILLIAM HENRY MIDDLETON:

I landed in stillwater township in Webster county on November 1, 1879. For many years we lived on our farm 9 miles north of Guide Rock. Being of Covenanter Faith, we helped build the Eckley church f the denomination. Many of our members moed away and we could not eep up our organization so we sold the church property to the Methodists. Our first church services had been held in a sod school house.

Notes for WILLIAM RALSTON MIDDLETON:

William R on his deathbed asked Uncle Frank if he could be Baptized, asked on Sunday- was immersed in Uncle Bert's bathtub by minister that Uncle Frank knew.

Story from Uncle Frank--William R lived for 6 months in Montana(I think Frank was with him) and he built 3 grain elevators. Brockaway, Montana. Jan 13, 1928 they lost the farm, because the sellers misrepresented it..

Moved Grandma and young ones into an apartment.

Lived on th shares(?) land, bought some horses and cow, planted wheat, wasn't what they thought it was going to be.

After 6 months they moved back to Miniter, Neb. around Sept 1928

William R. was kicked out of the Presb. church for playing pool.

Helen's recollection of William's relationship with Hanford. Feb. 5, 2000

Working there and kept thinking he had ulcers because stomach hurt. Hauled him over to Portland, from Kennewick. He got to the hospital, he was in extreme pain. The doctors opened him up and sewed him back up and gave him 5 months. Mom and dad came up in Oct. or Nov. . Mom had a restaurant and she found someone to take over for her. Mid Nov. After mom left, he went downhill. Stomach. Years worked there-no idea. He was a pipe-fitter. They would take him into a room, blindfold him. take him to room to find pipe needed. They would take the blindfold off so he could get the pipe, then blindfold him again to take him back.
