However, there is no record that However, there is no record that it was called "Thanksgiving." It was only in 1623 that the Puritan Pilgrims began to "set apart a day for thanksgiving." For the first Thanksgiving, the Indians invited brought deer and turkey. Four hunters sent out by turkey. Four hunters sent out by Governor Bradford also brought back turkey. And turkey it has been, for 350 years.

This practice of Thanksgiving, was kept alive only by state pro-clamation. In 1846, Sarah Josepha Hale, a magazine editor, began a campaign to make Thanksgiving a national holiday. She chose the last Thursday of November because on that day, in 1790, President Washington had proposed a National Thanks-giving Day in honor of the new US Constitution.

On October 3, 1863, President Union, believing the Union saved, proclaimed a national day of thanksgiving. He chose that last Thursday in November. In 1865, Andrew Johnson named December's first Thursday; in 1869, US Grant named the third November. Thursday; in 1869, US Grant named the third November. Thursday; in 1869.

1869, US Grant named the third November Thursday; in 1939, FDR chose the fourth Thursday in November and in the following two years businessmen pressured him to choose the third Thursday in November.

In December 1941, a joint resolution of Congress stopped this changing of dates at the whims of various Presidents. The resolution specified the fourth Thursday (which is not always the last Thursday) as Thanksgiving Day.

the last Thursday) as Thanks-giving Day.

Canada, our closest neighbor, first proclaimed a National Thanksgiving Day in 1879. In 1931, it was made a statutory holiday. The second Monday in October won recognition as the honorable day.

Football Recap

The Lion varsity football team has recently completed a very successful season. They had a record of 6-3, giving them a third place finish in the Coast Division place finish in the Coast Division of the Coast Valley League. Finishing first and second were McMinnville and Astoria, respectivly. The Coast Valley League was very well balanced this year — all the teams were tough. tough.

Head Coach Dave Kocer attributed much of the team's success to the leadership of the seniors. He felt they had a lot of hustle and desire, as did the whole team. Kocer also felt the assistance of coaches Bert Burr, Wally Green, Jeff Basinski, and Bill O'Toole was very instrumental in the team's success. There was a lot of pressure on each game, as most were very close.

One of the high points of the season was after the Benson game when they had a 3-0 record. The Lions were rated 11th in the state by some polls at that time.

country meet in confident stride. Making the trip down to Eugene on Saturday, November 6 were Barger, Nickelson, Painter, Wilson, Beck, Walters and Dahlgren. Sophomore McCollam was the alternate.

The race, held at Lane Community College, was won by Randy Brown of Sunset in a time of 12:00 minutes. His win enabled Sunset to take fourth place in team placings. Gary Barger of St. Helens was fifth, thus earning him a place on the All-State first team.

In the overall team placings, Ashland and Centennial tied for first. Third, fifth and sixth were North Eugene, West Albany and Hillsboro respectively. Tying for seventh were South Eugene and St. Helens. Ninth was Rex Put-nam and tenth was South Salem.

St. Helens runners placed considerably lower than expected. In earlier meets during the season, they had lost only to Ashland, Centennial, Central and South Salem.

Scorers for St. Helens were Barger, Nickelson, Painter, Walters and Wilson in that order. Non-scorers were Dahlgren and Beck. McCollam did not run.

JV's 5-2-1 for season

"Exceptional" was how Coaches Jeff Basinski and Bill O'Toole described the 1971 JV Football Team. They had a good season — they won five, lost two, and tied one. Many of this years JV team members will move up to Varsity next year and help them immensely. Injuries hampered the Lion Cubs; they lost a number of players during the course of the season.

Ron Barrick was the leading passer, and Glenn Harrington was the leading rusher.

A high point of the season was the McMinnville game, which they won 28-14. Mac was the only team they lost to last season. The JV's won their last three games, a good comeback effort "Exceptional" was
