

Play Nov. 16-18

"Life With Father," a comedy written by Howard Lindsay and Russel Crouse will be the fall play presented at SHSHS.

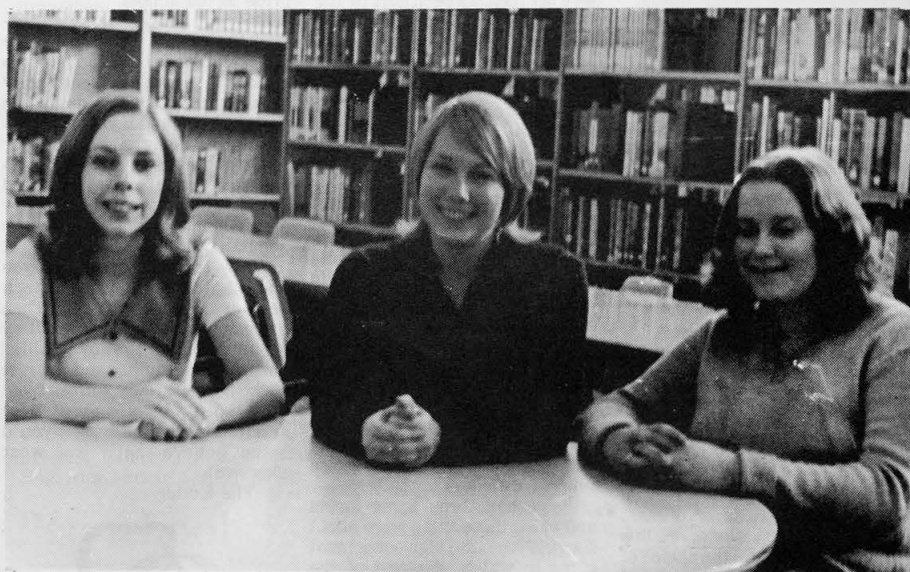

The plot of the play is centered around Father, his wife Vinnie, their sons, relatives, and friends in an epic struggle involving father and mother, to have father baptized.

Lead rolls are held by Steve DeShazer-father, Sue Hamilton as mother, Maria Warneke-Mary, and Bill Perkins as Clarence.

Other lead rolls are portrayed by Terry Tracey as Whitney, Ray Bartley as John, Clarinda Hanson as Cora, and Larry Weaver as Doctor Lloyd.

Other parts went to Shawn Williams-Doctor Humphrey, Lori Hudson-Maggie, Steve Pavelek-Doctor Somers, Ronda Dawson-Margaret, Nancy Keene-Annie, Jean Mendenhall-Nora, and Kerry Mason-Delia.

The play will be open to the public November 16, 17, and 18 at 8:00 p.m. in the SHSHS Cafeteria.

Three return from abroad

Three SHSHS seniors traveled abroad this summer. Trudy Glasscoe, Lori Lease and Debi Manges toured and lived in various countries for American Heritage and AFS.

Lori and Debi enjoyed a stay in France which included visiting such places as the Eiffel Tower, the Arc de Triumphe, Place DeLa and other attractions. The girls stayed with an appointed family. They attended school for two and one half weeks from nine to eleven each day, they studied vocabulary, and then cooking. Some of the dishes the girls learned to cook were meat dishes, vegetables, salads, chocolate mousse, and crepes.

Their trip was filled with sight-seeing of the famous places in France. Lori and Debi left June 18 and returned August 1.

Trudy Glasscoe traveled throughout Ecuador during her trip. Trudy lived with the Raul Velasco family in Quito where she stayed for seven weeks. The weather in Ecuador was quite dry and overcast the temperature was around 60 degrees all during Trudy's visit.

Trudy learned to make Pan which is a type of bread and also tasted Fried Bananas.

Trudy said she enjoyed her trip. She left June 20 and returned at the end of July.

The St. Helens AFS Chapt gave Trudy a $100 scholarship help her out on her trip.

Clubs make new plans

In the past six weeks of school many clubs and organizations have been busy making plans for the year. Many new activities have been added to last year's agenda. A club column each issue will be devoted to the activities.

Student Council, advised by Doug Stewart, would like to develop democratic attitudes, provide a line of communications between students, teachers and administration and promote projects that are of benefit to the school and students. As in the past, the student council will be in charge of all the events for Homecoming Week and the Winterball.

To work closely with the American Field Service and help raise money to send a student to another country is the main purpose of the International Relation League. Mrs. Denison, club advisor, would also like to work with the foreign exchange student. I.R.L. members will be hosting the foreign exchange students throughout Oregon and Washington for the annual AFS Friendship Day. They will also sponsor the IRL Smorgasboard and help with the AFS Dinner.

Mrs. VanGrunsven, advisor of the German Club would like to better acquaint the students of our school with the customs of Germany, to finance a foreign exchange student, to learn to work in harmony with other students, and to benefit the community through activities benefiting the students. The German Club is planning to do a skit in the Carol Contest, go to Ochs Parks, and Rheinlander and have a bike-athon.

Camping, hiking, ski lessons, and an Earth Day week symposium are the activities planned for the Outdoor Life Club. Advisor, Gene Strehlou would like to create an interest in outdoor activities and develop an appreciation of nature and its conservation and the prevention of pollution.

The manager of the Student Store for the 1972-73 school year is Debra Houghtelling. Her advisor, Clarence Butler, would like to

SHSHS takes political polls

In the past month, 2 political polls have been given to the students at SHSHS.

A straw ballot including all candidates and some ballot measures, was taken by all Modern Problems students. The results seemed to favor the Republican ticket.

Out of all the students that voted for president, 53% voted for Republican, Richard Nixon; 42% for Democrat, George McGovern; and 5% for John Schmitz of the American Independent party.

In the race for U.S. Senate, students chose Republican Mark Hatfield with 59% to Democrat Wayne Morse's 41%.

For the House of Representatives, 1st district, Republican Wendell Wyatt had 77% of the vote to the 23% of Democrat Ralph Bunch.

Republican Clay Myers got 79% of the vote for Secretary of State and Democrat Beulah Hand got 21%.

A turn to the Democrats came about for State Treasurer as 64% of the people voted for Democrat James Redden and 36% for Republican Craig Berkman.

Republicans again took over in the race for State Attorney General. Republican Lee Johnson got 62% of the vote to Democrat R. P. "Joe" Smith's 38%.

None of the 4 ballot measures passed.

The first measure asked if the Oregon Constitution should be amended to allow state tax money to be used for religious school and institution operations. The no vote was 69% to 31% for the yes vote.

To the question of shall the state repeal the governors retirement fund as established by the state legislature, 56% said no and 44% said yes.

Also failing was the measure of changing the succession of office of governor to 1. Secretary of State; 2. Treasurer; 3. Senate President; and 4. Speaker of the House. The vote was 51% no and 49% yes.

The last and probably most important measure for students was an amendment to the state constitution prohibiting the levy of property taxes for financing school operations. Of those voting, 69% voted no and 31% voted yes. Many educators believe if this measure passes with the voters the schools will be in trouble.

Another poll was given by Mr. Cosgriff's Argumentation and Debate class to all students at school.

Nixon got 46% of the 518 votes, McGovern got 21% and 5% of the votes went to other. Undecided voters were 21%. All classes chose Nixon over McGovern by nearly 20%.

Party preference, however, showed that seniors were Democrat by 56% and Republican by 21% and other or no answer 23%. Juniors were also Democrat with 56%, Republican with 21% and 23% were other or no answer. Sophomores showed favoritism to Republicans with 38%, Democrat 36% and other or no answer 26%.

To the question "Do you really care who wins the election," 70% replied no.

Even though there were more Democrats in party preference, 79 of them voted for Nixon. Only 12 Republicans voted for McGovern.

There were 5 reasons for voting. Among them was influence of parents, influence of friends, party influence, candidate image, and other reasons.

Of the seniors voting, 8 voted for Nixon because of influence of parents and 4 voted for McGovern for the same reason. Influence of friends caused 4 votes for Nixon and 1 for McGovern. Party influence was the reason for 2 votes for Nixon and 9 for McGovern. Nixon got 32 votes because of candidate image and McGovern got 14. Other reasons gave Nixon 29 votes and McGovern 15 votes.

The juniors who voted gave Nixon 13 votes for influence of parents, 3 votes for influence of friends, 3 votes for party influence, 30 votes for candidate image, and 30 votes for other reasons. McGovern got 5 votes because of influence of parents, 2 votes because of influence of friends, 10 votes for party influence, 24 votes for candidate image and 17 votes for other reasons.

Sophomores gave Nixon 16 votes because of parent influence, 2 votes for influence of friends, 10 votes for party influence, 31 votes for candidate image and 24 votes for other reasons. McGovern got 11 votes for parent influence, 1 vote for friends influence, 8 votes for party influence, 16 votes for candidate image and 6 votes for other reasons.

Among the reasons given for voting for McGovern by the Seniors, 3 wanted change in government policy, 2 because they felt he could end the war, 2 agreed with his ideas, 3 said he was the best choice, 2 didn't like Nixon and 1 says he'll live up to his promises.

Of the juniors, 4 said he'd end the war, 3 agreed with his policies, and 7 didn't like Nixon.

Sophomores who didn't like Nixon were 2 people, 1 person said he'd end the war and 1 person said he was for the people.

Reasons for voting for Nixon by the seniors were 10 people who said he did a good job, 6 didn't like McGovern, 3 didn't like McGovern's policies, 1 liked Nixon's policies, 1 liked his handling of the war, 2 thought McGovern wasn't strong enough and 3 gave no reason.

Of the juniors, 10 thought he had done a good job, 4 said he was better than Nixon, 3 said he knew what he was doing, 4 didn't like McGovern, 3 said McGovern couldn't do anything, and 1 person thought he was doing well with the economy.

Sophomores for Nixon had 6 people that said he did a good job, 4 didn't like McGovern, 2 thought he was the better of the two, 2 wanted Nixon because McGovern was against gun control, and 4 said that Nixon could do the job.

National elections will be November 7.

BACKTALK

Staff needs help

To the Editor:

"Section 12, Article IX, Part D of the Student Conduct Code states that no person in attendance, regardless of status in the St. Helens School District 502 shall conspire to have, attempt to haze, or engage in hazing, which in the commission of any act that injures, degrades, or disgraces or tends to injure any person attending the institution."

Such was the theme of an editorial printed in the October 9 issue of the Lions Roar.

The headlines of the editorial was indeed a clever disguise. At a first glance the reader sees an editorial supposedly containing the pros and cons of hazing. After further investigation we find this to be untrue. What is found is indeed a misfortune, since both the editorials accuse and condemn the Girls' League of initiating hazing during the annual Big-Little Sister Party.

I believe the student body should know the facts and not be misled by a misused editorial power.

The Girls' League Council and Advisors were informed of the contents of the code prior to the beginning of the school year. The League immediately decided it was necessary to evaluate the program, and if needed, to change the program to comply with the code.

During the Girl's League Retreat, the Big-Little Sister Party became the subject of several hours of discussion and thoughtful planning by the Girl's League Council. The Council carefully discussed the pros and cons of the party. Instead of pointing out because we had to change the program, the council and advisors went to work. It would have been much easier to forget the entire program, but we felt the program definitely should be continued in the interest of all the girls.

After much work, we approved a plan we felt would be acceptable in the eyes of the administration as well as the girls. The administration approved the program, assuring us the plan was in keeping with the code. We received complaints from girls who were disappointed in the necessary changes. The girls as a whole felt that hazing never had existed during the Big-Little Sister Party. In past years, the girls enjoyed the activities. Even as Sophomores they never felt "degraded" or "disgraced."

Hazing, as defined in the dictionary, is "to bully or subject one to cruel and ridiculous pranks or tricks."

Eating lunch, playing games, and attending a party with your Little Sister can hardly be considered subjecting one to cruel and ridiculous tricks or pranks.

A special effort was made this year to give the girls the choice of participating. Bulletins and announcements made it perfectly clear that anyone who didn't want to participate didn't have to. Sign-up sheets in the hall provided a place to clarify who would participate. The only people who didn't were Seniors who worked on the D.O. Programs and couldn't be Big Sisters. The Sophomores were all eager to participate, and none of them crossed off their name.

The Big-Sister Party didn't contain hazing of any sort, and as such, the accusations voiced in the Hazing editorial are completely unfounded.

In the first place, neither articles is defending hazing as implied by the headlines, and secondly the alleged hazing never existed. Also, the editorial does not give their definition of hazing, or prove girls were disgraced or degraded.

All organizations have to comply with the rules, so crying about equality of students and organizations is unnecessary.

Girls League did not attempt to get away with hazing "behind closed doors in the gym." Anyone was free to observe an many did.

In view of the fact, I believe an apology to the Girls League is in order.

Sincerely,
Trudy Glasscoe
Girls League President
St. Helens Sr. High

Dear Editor:

I have heard several comments around the school concerning both editorial articles in the Oct. 9 issue and I think it's terrible that a few students can be so terrible as to hate and gossip about the students who wrote the articles.

I think that everybody is entitled to their own opinion and I happen to agree with theirs. I would like to make it understood to the student body that I am a member of the Girls' League Council. In fact I am one of the officers. At the retreat the council discussed the hazing situation. Many views and opinions were voiced and it seems as though some of the council members are taking the opinions that would degrade the Girls' League program.

I am in no way embarrassed nor have my feelings been hurt by the editorials about hazing. I feel in no way the Lions Roar staff owes Girls' League or anyone else an apology for what they have published.

by Terri Nickelson

Dear Editor:

The school paper is supposed to be printing everything that goes on in this school, to tell the students what is happening in their school activities. Everything in this school is Football, Basketball, Wrestling, Baseball, Track and Cross Country. There's nothing worth telling about them, but we do have a swim team in this school too. We may not be the best in the district but with maybe a little more support we could do better.

We've had three home meets and at all these there were about six girls from the high school that came to watch, the rest of the spectators have been from the other team. That really makes us want to work real hard!

Last year I can remember an article in the paper about spirit. But where is this student spirit during our swim meets? Some people say this school has a lot of spirit but where is it? It's at the football games on Friday night. Spirit means going to as many school activities as you can possibly make.

Where are our spirited cheerleaders?

Tim Waine

Dear Tim:

This school paper tries to cover all it can and get it done for the deadlines which they have to meet every two weeks. We have a limited staff and we can cover only just so much in two weeks time.

I'm sure the students are well aware of the swim team but take into consideration that students have many other things to do most every night of the week. I'm quite sure there are many who just plain can't stay after school for anything because their parents have other plans for them when they get home. There are many kids who are out for sports that don't make it anywhere but to their practice, and there are those who volunteer their time to help at other athletic events, such as time keepers, stats, and managers.

If the Swim Team thinks they have it bad just talk to a member of the Cross Country team, the J.V. Football team, or the Girls Volleyball squad. They haven't had the support they should have had either.

As to your question where is the spirit?, well your guess is as good as mine. If the Student Body didn't listen and take heed from the editorial and the speech given by Coach Whittick last year then it's up to the Student Body to get it together and live up to our reputation of having spirit and pride in our school.

As for our spirited cheerleaders, I think they have to be given credit for trying hard to make it to everything they possibly can. They're doing the best they can and if you ask them how hard being a cheerleader really is they'll give you quite an answer. There is a lot expected from those six girls and they aren't doing things just for the popularity of it, or who they'll get to know from doing it. Did you know that it takes a week to get a pep assembly planned? Then there are students who spoil it by standing/sitting like zombies during the assembly and the rest of the Student Body suffers from this. When you talk about "our spirited cheerleaders" you'd better believe that's just what they are!

Inservice Day held

Teachers throughout the state participated in various workshops during Teacher In-Service Day on Friday, October 13.

The State Department of Education in conjunction with the O.E.A. has set aside one day during which teachers are given a day free of school duties to attend workshops. These workshops are set up in different subject matter fields for the improvement of instruction. Each teacher selected a workshop that was of interest to his field of education.

There were workshops for every field of education, Language Arts, P.E. Math, History, Journalism, coaches, and many more.

By tradition, Teacher In-Service Day has always been held in October, but the Oregon Commission on Circular Improvement, in cooperation with the State Department of Education, is recommending that the date be changed to avoid conflict with sports.

After attending a recent Oregon Scholastic Press Conference in Eugene, I started to realize how dull our newspaper really is, so I set out to find a way to make it more interesting with things people like to read.

I found out that it takes a little bit of help from the students and faculty to make our newspaper one that everyone enjoys reading.

If the president or the advisor of a club would try to let us know when they are going to be having an activity, no matter how unimportant it may seem to you, we of the Newspaper staff would be more than happy to cover it and to include it in the next issue, or we could write an early story on it and help you with a little publicity.

On occasion there are people who might have different opinions about the editorials in the Lion's Roar, this is when your "Letter's to the Editor" are more than welcome, and as long as they meet with our staff policy and are not libelous, we will print them.

We are trying to make our newspaper one that everyone enjoys and to do it we need your help.

Tournament
at FG

The SHSHS Forensics Club traveled to Forest Grove High School on Saturday October 7 for the first speech tournament of the school year.

In order to be eligible for a certificate a student must receive a one or a two in the judge's scoring. Ratings are based on a one to four rank system with one meaning superior, two meaning excellent, three meaning good and four meaning poor. "At the various speech tournaments held throughout the year there are usually trophies given out but the Forest Grove tournament was a critique, or a trial meet to help the students with constructive criticism. Therefore no trophies were given to any school," said Forensics president, Sheree Bogardus.

However, senior Terri Nickelson received a certificate for poetry, senior Rhonda Dawson for Expository, senior Karen Ward also for poetry, and senior Jean Mendenhall for Humorous Interpretation. Jean received her certificate with a "one" rating while the others received theirs for excellent ratings.

Other students participating in the speech tournament were Patty McKeehan, poetry; Karen Strand, poetry; and Sheree Bogardus, serious and humorous.

Playschool
held

If anyone has wondered about the trikes and wagons in the hall, and little people running around, they needn't worry! The annual playschool is being held again at SHSHS sponsored by the Home-making classes. Homemaking students study a unit about the behavior of children. Having playschool is just an easy way of really getting to know more about them.

Finger painting, free play, play dough, and story time are some of the activities that keep the children busy and happy while they are at playschool.

There are two sessions, one held in the morning and one in the afternoon during the weeks of Oct. 3 to Oct. 20.

Mary Backlund, Andy Brown, Clarissa Brown, Cory Coughlin, Sean Cosgriff, Jeffrey Crouse, Carolyn Delgado, Barry Dent, Brian Nordquist, Danny West, Dawn Wendelschafer, Mike Whittick, and Kammie Kay Ziemer are attending morning classes.

provide students with on-campus ice cream, potato chips, candy, and immediately needed school supplies. Debra is in charge of supplying concessions for Football, Basketball and wrestling. This provides a student with clerking, stocking, and store operation experience.

Lyman Hagen, the new FFA advisor is interested in building leadership, citizenship and working with the community for the benefit of both. The various activities of the FFA will be public speaking, soil judging, livestock judging, Parliamentary procedure contest, forestry skills, and show exhibits. There will also be a banquet held in the spring.

There will be more information in the next issue of the Lions Roar about the other clubs and organizations and their purposes and plans for the year.

4-car collision on parking lot

For all who haven't heard, there was an accident in the parking lot that involved four cars.

This occurred when James Parsons rounded the corner of the second island and ran into Shirley Templeton, who was backing out of a parking space. Her car hit Mike Weber's, which then hit Marcy Fenks.

Damage to the Parson's car was a banged up front end. Shirley's car was smashed in at the right rear door. Mike Weber's car was hit in the left taillight area which he had just had repaired. Marcy's car had some minor scratches along the drivers side. There were no serious injuries.

Veterans' Day
October 23

October 23 is Veterans' Day this year. In the past it was always on November 11th which was the original Armistice Day. This day marked the end to the first World War in 1918.

Some of the activities connected with Veterans Day are Parades and the decoration of soldiers tombstones which is symbolized by the decoration of the tomb of the unknown soldier in Arlington National Cemetery in Arlington, Virginia.

The date was changed to October 23rd by the Federal Government in order to provide a three day weekend.

Veterans Day commemorates the courage and patriotism of all the men and women who have served in the United States armed services.

This weeks Kar Korner goes to Mike McCain and his 1968 camaro rally sport. Most of you have probably seen this car which is maroon colored and has white lace on the hood and trunk of the car. His rally sport is powered by a 327 a 6-1/2 holly 4 barreli, with 411 posa-traction in the rear end. The transmission he has now is a Munson 4 speed with close racial gears. He plans on getting new 14 inch radials for the rear which will be capped with baby moons in the back and chromed wheels in the front. In the inside he has bucket seats with black interior and black carpet. It also has a radio and an eight track. Now we just hope that he doesn't make to many more friends with the police like the one above (who consented to pose for this picture).

Volleyball Varsity loses against Mac

BONNIE DORIS returning the ball during the game with LaSalle.

The Varsity Volleyball team pulled through to win two out of the five games against McMinnville but lost the match.

St. Helens was lead by Donna Waite to win the first game 15-11 but couldn't manage to keep up with Mac's Cheryl Gross scoring 10 points and leading Mac to win the second game 15-13.

Jeanne Warren lead the third game which was very close with St. Helens losing by only three points. The Lions had a great comeback when Connie Anderson started the point streak and they went on to win the fourth game 15-4.

The final game was very disappointing when Mac won 15-11 causing St. Helens to loose the match. The Varsity Volleyball team consisting of Connie Anderson, Cathy Rier, Jeanne Warren, Terri Luttrell, Jean Mendenhall, Donna Waite, and Lisa Iverson have their next home game Tuesday, Oct. 17 with Dallas and the last game of the season is Tuesday, Oct. 24 when St. Helens travels to Newberg.

CC splits two

Jim Beck placed fourth out of 42 runners at the Sam Barlow Invitational held on Oct. 11. The entire meet was won by Madras with Centennial second and St. Helens third out of seven teams.

Beck's time was 13:37 only 15 seconds behind the first place winner Rob Gauthier, of Madras, timed at 13:22. Ralph Painter placed seventh with a time of 14:02.

Graydon Pihlaja shows to be a strong competitor for St. Helens for the next few years.

The other runners were Joe McGilvia placing 25th at 15:04, Steve Rethati placing 27th at 15:07, Randy Peterson placing 34th at 15:28, and John Schmidt placing 41st at 16:25.

Gene Strehlou, cross country coach, commented on how well the runners did. He also noted that the team will be greatly improving as time goes on.

Senior team ahead

The results thus far for intramural football show Rich Russel's team ahead with three wins and no losses. Next in a tie for second place are Terry Charlet's and Jon Blair's teams, each with two wins and one loss. Third is Dave Lawrence's team with one win and no losses. Last is Bruce Holz's team with one win and one loss.

Lions post 33-21 victory

St. Helens Lions Varsity football team posted a 33-21 win over the Forest Grove Vikings October 6 on the Viking's home ground. For the Lions it was their second out of five games. The Lions also proved they could hold their opponent to only one touchdown in the fourth quarter as opposed to being outscored in the quarter by their previous opponents.

For the Lions it was the hard charging of Gary Kling and Ken Doherty, plus the passing of Ron Barrick that added to the Lions victory over the Vikings.

The first score came from Jeff Edwards as he received a 70 yard pass from Barrick with 7:25 remaining in the first quarter. Five minutes later it was a Barrick to Stroud pass that put six more on the board. Randy Von Allman kicked the extra point which made the score 13-0.

The Vikings first score came in the second quarter as Dave DeShazer scored from the 1 to make the score 13-7 at the end of the half.

The Lions scored again in the third quarter as Kling went in from the seven, and VonAllman making the P.A.T. for a 20-7 lead.

The Vikings came right back on a Lion fumble and Al Nordgern ran in from the one to make it 20-14.

It was Kling on a drive from the 8 yd. line at the end of the third quarter to make the score 26-14.

In the fourth the Vikings scored their final goal as Nordgern went in from the two.

The Lions still hadn't given up as Kling drove into the end zone from the six yard line to make the final score 33-21.

Score by Quarter:
St. Helens	13	0 13 7—33
Forest Grove	0	7 7 7—21

JV,s victorious

Karen Kreman lead the J.V. Volleyball team to victory Oct. 10 to beat McMinnville in both games, winning the match. In the first game St. Helens scored 15 points to Mac's 10 and went on to win the second game 15-11.

The girls were outstanding as a team which consists of Micky Broders, Rena Duman, Karen Kreman, Sue Irwin, Sue McCartney, Bonnie Doris and Deanna Thompson.

Friday 13 Lucky for Lions

Friday the 13th proved to be a good night for the Lions as they jinxed the Franklin Quakers of Portland 33-7 on the home field.

The Quakers scored first as they marched down field from the 48 yard line after a Lion fourth down punt. John Harding went over for the TD and John Wallace made the extra point, which made the score 7-0.

A Kling pass to Edwards was good for the Lions' first touchdown. The extra point attempt failed.

The Lions scored again in the second quarter as Kling carried the ball up the middle for the tally. Two minutes later it was Doherty who had the Lions moving toward the goal. Kling went in for the score and Randy VonAllman kicked the conversion which made a 19-7 halftime score.

Halfway through the third quarter a pass from Barrick to Stroud made the Lions fifth score of the game. VonAllman's kick was good for a 26-7 lead.

On a fourth down situation early in the fourth quarter Barrick lateralled to Kling, he in turn passed the ball to Ron Hamilton who was wide open for the end zone. VonAllman's kick was once again good which made the final score 33-7.

Gary Kling rolled up 157 yards of the Lions' 357 while the Quakers were held to 132 yards.
